Vienna, September 2.

Since Sunday laſt the Emperor has been entirely without Fever, and is ſo much recovered as to be able to reſume his Walks in the Gardens of Laxembourg.

The Turks have been diſlodged from Mehadia by General Clairfait's Corps, reinforced by a conſiderable Detachment under the Command of the Prince of Waldeck.

Paris, September 10.

The Three great conſtitutional Queſtions which have for ſome Time occupied the Attention of the National Aſſembly are, 1ſt, Whether the Aſſembly is to be periodical, or permanent. 2dly, Whether it is to form one or more Houſes; and 3dly, Whether the King ſhall have a Veto; and, if granted, whether it is to be an abſolute, or only a ſuſpending Veto. After a long and warm Debate Yeſterday on the firſt Queſtion, they voted themſelves permanent; but without any Explanation or Modification whatever. The ſecond Queſtion, after a very warm Debate, was adjourned till the Evening.

[ Price Eight-pence. ]

6. Above Fifty Years of Age, and under Sixty, at the Time of such Nomination, to an Annuity of - - 5 1 6

7. From Sixty Years of Age and upwards at the Time of such Nomination, to an Annuity of - - - 5 12 0

8. The said Annuities, with Benefit of Survivorship, are to commence from the 10th of October, 1790; till which Period the Subscribers are to be allowed an Interest of Four per Cent. per Annum on each Share as above, commencing from the 5th Day of July last.

9. Such Subscribers as shall choose to pay the Whole, or any Part of any Share or Shares, in Advance, at any Time or Times previous to the Periods prescribed for the Payment of the same, will be entitled to a Discount on the Monies so advanced, at the Rate of Three per Cent. per Annum, at ta Bdeqnk of England.

10. Any Subscriber or Subscribers not compleating their Payments at or before the respective Times specified in the printed Receipts issued from the Bank, will forfeit the Sum or Sums they shall have already paid thereon, and all Right and Title to any Annuity in Respect thereof will be extinguished.

11. Any Proprietor or Proprietors of Shares, having compleated their Payments on the same, will, on Application to the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England, be entitled to receive from him or them a Certificate, directed to the Auditor of the Exchequer, containing the Names and Additions of such Proprietors; which Certificates shall be assignable by an Indorsement, witnessed by Two Persons, at any Time before the said 10th of October, 1790, free of any Stamp Duty on Certificate or Assignment.

12. Every Proprietor must deliver in, on or before the 10th of October, 1790, such Certificate to the said Auditor of the Exchequer, to be exchanged for Orders, to be made out in Manner hereinafter mentioned, and shall, at the same Time, on the Back of every such Certificate, name and describe the Person on whose Life he, she or they shall desire to have an Annuity, with Benefit of Survivorship, by and under such Description as will best ascertain the Age and Person of such Nominee; and, in Failure of Compliance with the Conditions of this Clause, all Sums of Money, which shall have been paid by the said Proprietor or Proprietors on the respective Shares held by them, will be forfeited to the Publick, and other Persons be admitted to subscribe in the Room of such as shall have so forfeited their Subscription.

13. If any Contributor or Contributors, who shall have paid his or her full Subscription, shall not have named their Nominees by the 10th of October, 1790, the Annuity annexed to such Share or Shares will be forfeited and divided amongst the Classes; and Lots are to be drawn to which Class it shall belong.

14. Any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politic or Corporate, Guardians or Trustees, may subscribe for any Number of Shares, and, after a due Compliance with the Forms herein before prescribed, will be entitled to an Order from the Auditor of the Exchequer for the Payment of a Life Annuity or Annuities, with Benefit of Survivorship as aforesaid, clearly expressing the Classes in which the Nominees named by them are to be placed.

15. Any Person or Persons having obtained such Order as aforesaid will, at any Time on or before the 10th of October, 1790, be at Liberty to change the Nominee he or she shall have so named, and to substitute any other Life in Place of that they had first named, on Application to the Lords of the Treasury for that Purpose.

16. Any Guardian or Guardians, Trustee or Trustees, having the Disposal of the Money of any Infants under Age, are at Liberty to purchase any Number of Shares with the Money, and for the Use and Benefit of such Infants, on their respective Lives. The said Infants, on attaining the Age of Twenty-one Years, to become and be deemed the Proprietors thereof, in the Room of their respective Guardians or Trustees.

17. Subscribers who are Natives of Great Britain are not allowed to appoint any Nominees who are not likewise Natives.

18. No Certificates respecting Age are required on any Life under Twenty Years of Age; but all Persons nominating Lives of Twenty Years and upwards, must produce Affidavits or (if Quakers) Affirmations in Writing of the Age, Name, Surname, and Place of Abode of their Nominee or Nominees, and the Place of his or her Birth, and the Names of his or her reputed Parents, with other apt Descriptions, to ascertain the Person or Persons of said Nominee or Nominees, such Affidavit or Affirmation to be made before one or more of His Majesty's Judges, which is to be certified by the said Judges without Fee or Reward, or Stamp Duty. Such Certificate must be filed at the Office of the Auditor of the Exchequer, and will be a sufficient Warrant for the Payment of the said Annuity; or, instead of said Affidavit or Affirmation, it will be sufficient if a true Copy of the Register of the Birth of the said Nominee (being of the Age of Twenty Years or upwards) is produced, under the Hands of the Minister, Church-Wardens, Overseers, or other principal Inhabitants of the Parish where such Register shall have been kept, or any Two of them, attested by Two or more credible Witnesses who shall have seen the same duly executed.

19. And in Case any Nominee shall be named who is resident in any of His Majesty's Dominions beyond Sea, the Person so naming shall produce a similar Certificate, under the Hand of the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Settlement where such Nominee shall be living at that Time.

20. Or if any Nominee shall be resident in the Dominions of any Prince in Amity with His Majesty, then a similar Certificate must be produced, under the Hand of the British Minister in that Place; and if there shall be no British Minister in the Place where said Nominee shall reside, then a similar Certificate must be produced, under the Hand and Seal of the Chief Magistrate of the Place.

21. Any

21. Any Perſon taking a falſe Oath in any of the Caſes aforeſaid, and lawfully convicted thereof, to be tranſported for Seven Years.

22. If any Certificate or Certificates ſhall be delivered to the Auditor of the Exchequer with falſe Indorſements of the Age of any Perſon to be appointed a Nominee, whereby ſuch Nominee would be claſſed in a higher Claſs than he or ſhe ought to have been, according to his or her true Age, the Subſcriber or Proprietor of the Share or Shares connected with ſuch Certificate ſhall forfeit all Annuities and Benefit of Survivorſhip annexed thereto.

23. Any Subſcriber or Contributor who ſhall name any Nominee or Nominees of Twenty Years of Age or upwards, will be at Liberty to place ſuch Nominee or Nominees in the firſt Claſs, under Twenty Years of Age, if they ſhall be deſirous of ſo doing.

24. Upon the falling in of any Life or Lives belonging to any Claſs, the Annuity or Annuities annexed to ſuch Life or Lives will be divided amongſt the Survivors of that Claſs, until by Death the Survivors in ſuch Claſs ſhall receive an Annuity of One Thouſand Pounds per Annum, on each Share of One Hundred Pounds Five Shilings, at which Period the Benefit of Survivorſhip is to ceaſe, and each Annuity of One Thouſand Pounds per Annum will from thence forward be a Life Annuity only.

25. Any Perſon having purchaſed One or more Shares in the Tontine has Power to aſſign the ſame at any Period during the Life of the Nominee or Nominees.

26. Certificates to be produced of the Lives of ſuch Nominees as do not appear in Perſon to receive their reſpective Annuities, ſigned by the Miniſter and Church-Warden of the Pariſh where they reſide, if in Great Britain, or an Oath to be made by the Subſcriber of the Life of ſuch Nominee before a Judge or Juſtice of Peace in the County or Place of Reſidence of ſaid Nominee. No Fee or Stamp Duty to be paid for theſe Oaths or Certificates.

27. If any Nominee or Nominees be reſident in Ireland when Application ſhall be made for the Payment of his, her or their Annuity, Certificates muſt be produced, under the Hand of One or more of the Barons of the Exchequer in that Kingdom, that, upon Proof to him or them made upon Oath, it doth ſeem probable to him or them that ſaid Nominee or Nominees are living at the Time of ſuch Examination; and in Caſe any Nominee ſhall, at the Times of ſuch Demand, be reſident in any Parts of His Majeſty's Dominions beyond Sea, Certificates of the Life of ſuch Nominee muſt be produced, under the Hand of the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Settlement where ſuch Nominees ſhall be living, on the Day when ſuch Half-yearly Payment ſhall become due; or if ſuch Nominee ſhall be reſident in any Foreign Country in Amity with His Majeſty, then the Certificate muſt be under the Hand of the Britiſh Miniſter reſident at the Place where ſuch Nominee ſhall then be; or if any Nominee ſhall be reſident in any other Foreign Country where there is no Britiſh Miniſter, then the Certificate of the Life of ſuch Nominee muſt be under the Hand of the Chief Magiſtrate of the Place or Province where ſuch Nominee ſhall then be living.

28. All Perſons producing Certificates of the Life of a Nominee, for the Purpoſe of receiving any Annuity, ſhall annex thereto an Affidavit or Affirmation that he or they believe the Matters ſet forth in ſuch Certificate or Certificates to be true.

29. Any Perſon knowingly receiving any Annuity on the Life of any Nominee after the Deceaſe of ſaid Nominee, over and above what was due to ſuch Nominee at the Time of his or her Deceaſe, is to forfeit treble the Value of the Sum ſo unjuſtly received, and alſo the further Sum of Five Hundred Pounds.

30. All Proprietors of One or more Shares in the Tontine are required to give Notice to the Auditor of the Exchequer of the Death of his or her Nominee or Nominees, within One Month after the ſame ſhall have come to their Knowledge, under a Penalty of Ten Pounds.

31. Annuities ariſing from the Tontine to be paid free of all Taxes whatever, and are to be conſidered as Perſonal Property.

32. If any Subſcriber ſhall neglect to demand his or her Annuity or Annuities till within Forty Days of Two Years after the ſame ſhall have become due, the ſaid Annuity or Annuities ſo left undemanded will be forfeited, and will thenceforth be divided amongſt the Claſs to which the ſame ſhall belong: But if ſuch Nominee ſhall afterwards appear to be living, he or ſhe ſhall be entitled to receive the ſame in future, on making a Demand in due Time.

33. An Account to be made up Half yearly at the Exchequer, of the Nominees who have died and of Perſons who have not demanded their Annuities for Two Years, in order that the Annuities annexed to ſuch Perſons may be divided amongſt the Survivors of the reſpective Claſſes to which they ſhall have belonged.

34. Any Subſcriber however making Oath before one or more Barons of the Exchequer, that although the proper Proofs are not then produced of the Life of his or her Nominee, there is ſtrong Reaſon to believe ſuch Nominee to be ſtill living beyond Seas, the Auditor of the Exchequer may ſuſpend the Diviſion of the ſaid Annuity for ſuch Time as ſhall appear to ſaid Baron or Barons ſufficient for the procuring the neceſſary Certificates; and if they ſhall not be produced within the Time ſo allowed by the Auditor, then the ſame will be divided amongſt the Survivors in the Claſs to which the ſaid Nominee belonged.

35. In Caſe any Order or Orders, iſſued by the Treaſury for the Payment of the Annuities, ſhall be loſt, burnt or deſtroyed, or worn out, the Lords of the Treaſury are empowered to iſſue freſh Orders in Lieu thereof.

36. Perſons forging or altering Regiſters or Certificates, or aſſiſting in doing ſo, to ſuffer Death as Felons; and any Perſon counterfeiting or perſonating any Nominee, with Intent to defraud, to ſuffer Death as Felons.

37. Liſts

37. Lists of the Nominees still living will be annually published by the Lords of the Treasury, and distributed amongst the Persons entitled to Annuities, gratis.

38. Any Officer of the Exchequer taking any Fee for transacting any Business respecting the Tontine is to forfeit Twenty Pounds.

THIS is the Substance of the Act for establishing the British Tontine, by which it appears that every Precaution has been and will be taken to protect the Property of all Persons purchasing any Share or Shares thereof. All Parents, Guardians and Trustees, therefore, may look forward to the ultimate as well as present Advantage to be derived by the Infants whose Lives they may nominate, as being amply secured to them by the Government of Great Britain.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a certain Order for Payment of Money, dated the 22d Day of September, 1788, with the Name of John Moore thereto subscribed, purporting to have been signed by John Moore, of London, Refiner, and directed to George Prescott, Esq; and others, of London, Bankers and Partners, by the Names and Descriptions of Messf. Prescotts and Co. for the Payment of the Sum of 700l. has been forged and counterfeited by some Person or Persons unknown; and that for uttering the said Order Jacob Canter has been tried and convicted:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Forgery, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Forgery, and also except the abovementioned Jacob Canter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Association of Bankers for discovering and prosecuting Forgeries, and other Frauds, do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (excepted as is above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me,

William Culverden,
Chairman of the Association.

Whitehall, August 24, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that various Riots and Disturbances broke out on or about the 29th Day of July last, and continued for several successive Days, in the Town and Neighbourhood of Wrexham, in the County of Denbigh; in the Course of which several Waggons were stopped and plundered, Boats destroyed, and Corn forcibly taken and sold for less than the current Price, by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the unlawful Proceedings abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof:

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is also pleased to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

Whitehall, September 5, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that the Dwelling-house of Mr. Richard Saumarez, at Newington Butts, in the County of Surrey, was feloniously and burglariously broke and entered in the Night of the 24th of August last, by Three Men unknown, who were discovered by James Bonner, a Watchman, whom they cruelly and inhumanly beat, cut and wounded, so that he languished 'till Saturday Evening last, and then died.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Burglary and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually gave the Blow which caused the Death of the said James Bonner,) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, we the Church-Wardens of the Parish of St. Mary Newington aforesaid, do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as abovementioned, to be paid by us on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
